Have you ever been Physically, Mentally and Spiritually Challenged all at once? Growing up – did she want to be an actor? Did she fall in love with Jesus as an actress playing St. Faustina? What did she bring to the role? Did this bring her closer to God?

Maria Vargo, native of St. Louis, Missouri, was brought up in a Catholic Family and attended Catholic Schools. She had one foot in and one foot out as she made some poor choices in her young life.

Maria is a Hollywood based actress, singer/songwriter, director and Christian speaker. In 2018 she was pushed beyond her limits by performing a one-woman show over 300 times all over North America called "Faustina." She also did the film and played the part of St. Faustina.

Come listen to this talented lady share her conversion story. She loves to share the message of God's endless mercy with the world particularly because she has experienced it first hand in her own life.

Bring yourself and a friend to be blessed in an explosion of Holy Moments.

"You've tested me so many times in this short life of mine. You could have made me love you but you wanted me to come to you of my own free will and now I understand why you hid yourself from me... so that I would trust in you!" St. Faustina to Jesus
